Publication of this special Index issue was made possible in part through a grant by the Marquette University Christian Commitment Fund, for which we are grateful. We also gratefully acknowledge Marquette University Computer Services Division for production of the Index.

Renascence, a critical and scholarly journal, is published by Marquette University as a Christian witness to literature for promoting the study of values in literature. Since the focus of the Journal is Christian thought and values, the editorial policy defines a perspective rather than a subject matter. It invites critical essays which incorporate the Christian perspective as a way of looking at literature. Manuscripts (2 copies) and correspondence about publication should be directed to: The Editor; Renascence; Brooks Hall, 200; Marquette University; P.O. Box 1881; Milwaukee WI 53201-1881. Manuscripts should conform to the new MLA Style Sheet and should be accompanied by a self-addressed envelope and sufficient return postage. Upon acceptance of manuscript, please submit essay on disk, either 5 1/4" (double density) IBM compatible or 3 1/2" MacIntosh, preferably using either Word or Wordperfect, or in ASCII format. Essays of fewer than 3000 words or more than 7500 words are not normally considered for publication.

*The Patrick and Beatrice Haggerty
Museum of Art
Marquette University*

The Patrick and Beatrice Haggerty Museum of Art, a gift of the Marquette University Women's Council, opened in 1984. In 1986, the Museum received a merit award from the Wisconsin Society of Architects. The design of the Haggerty Museum provides exciting space for experiencing art.

The Museum's collections include more than 6,000 works representing Renaissance, Baroque and Modern paintings, sculpture, prints and photography, decorative arts, Asian and tribal arts. Special collections include: Barbara Morgan Vintage Photographs and the A.J. Conroy Collection of Miniature Paintings. Works in this developing collection have been given to Marquette University by generous donors beginning in the 1950s. Exhibitions from the permanent collections and special exhibitions offer exciting visual approaches to learning, complementing the humanities and sciences. They include a broad spectrum of historical and contemporary experimental subjects from Old Master paintings to holograms.
